

iTTTi Vancouver Attendance Policy COVID 19 Addendum

During the current pandemic of COVID 19 iTTTi Vancouver will be temporarily adjusting the attendance policy. This applies to current and any future health threats on the campus:

Effective Immediately

All staff have been trained in identifying symptoms of COVID 19.

Students are screened on arrival at the campus, temperature and welfare check.

If the staff are concerned that the student is displaying respiratory illness symptoms and/or fever, the student will be refused admittance to the campus and required to return home.
